Dear Denis Zhurba,

I am reaching out on behalf of Netology to extend our heartfelt thanks and appreciation for the profound impact your expertise in product analytics has had on our Data Science Master's program. Your contribution goes beyond mere participation; it represents a significant advancement in the tech industry, particularly in the nuanced field of product analytics.

As you know, Netology is Russia's premier online university, focusing on the education and supplementary training of specialists in a wide array of fields, including but not limited to business and management, design and UX, programming, analytics and data science, business education, and higher education. As of 2023, our diverse catalog of 355 courses has aided the professional growth of over 642,580 specialists. Your recent involvement undeniably adds to the richness of our offerings.

As an invited expert, your involvement underscores the high esteem in which we hold your knowledge and skills. Your reputation as an industry-leading talent is well-known, and having you share your insights with our students and faculty has been an extraordinary privilege. Your work has not only enriched our curriculum but has also set a benchmark for excellence within the educational sphere.

Your exceptional expertise in product analytics has elevated the learning experience for over 1000 aspiring data scientists at Netology.

The strategies and insights you shared have been instrumental in shaping a more relevant, practical, and innovative program. This will undoubtedly influence the professional trajectory of our students, arming them with the knowledge and skills to excel in a competitive global marketplace.

Your recommendations have also played a crucial role in the strategic positioning of our program. Thanks to your guidance, we are better equipped to target and engage our audience effectively, ensuring that our program not only meets but exceeds the expectations of our students and the industry at large.

We are immensely honored to have had the opportunity to collaborate with someone of your caliber. Your dedication to sharing your knowledge and advancing the tech industry is truly inspirational.

Thank you once again for your valuable contribution and for choosing to be a part of our journey. We look forward to the possibility of future collaborations, confident in the knowledge that your continued involvement will further enhance our educational offerings.

With sincere appreciation,

Thank you once again for your invaluable contribution.

Warm regards,

Marianna Snigireva
General director at Netology
