

Certificate of Gratitude

Presented to Denis Zhurba

Dear Denis Zhurba,

I hope this letter finds you well. I am writing on behalf of the Eurasian Business Conference organizing team to express our heartfelt appreciation for your invaluable contribution to our recent event in London. Your expertise as a product manager and a founder has greatly enriched the discussions, offering forward-thinking perspectives and innovative solutions in front of our audience.

The Eurasian Business Conference, founded in 2012 and revitalized in 2024 by a passionate group of students and alumni from University College London (UCL) and the London School of Economics and Political Science (LSE), proudly acknowledges your contribution to making this event a milestone in its history.

Your participation as an invited expert brought a wealth of knowledge and expertise to the conference, enriching the experience of the 300+ attendees. Your mentorship towards the startups was inspiring and instrumental in guiding them towards realizing their potential. Additionally, your role at assessing founders and their projects showcased your keen insight and dedication to fostering innovation in the business community.

We are grateful for your commitment to sharing your expertise and for the positive impact you have made on the aspiring entrepreneurs and attendees. Your presence greatly contributed to the success of the event, and we hope to have the honor of welcoming you again in future conferences.

Thank you once again for your significant contribution and for being an integral part of our conference's success.

Sincerely,

Leo Zeligmans
